39/... Equal participation in political and public affairs

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

Recalling all relevant international human rights treaties, in particular the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,

Recalling also all relevant General Assembly and Human Rights Council resolutions on participation in political and public affairs, in particular Council resolutions 24/8 of 26 September 2013, on equal political participation, and 27/24 of 26 September 2014, 30/9 of 1 October 2015 and 33/22 of 30 September 2016,

Emphasizing the critical importance of equal and effective participation in political and public affairs for democracy, the rule of law, social inclusion, economic development and advancing gender equality and empowerment of women and girls, as well as for the realization of all human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Welcoming the contributions of Member States and other stakeholders to the drafting of the guidelines on effective implementation of the right to participate in public affairs, both through their written submissions and their participation in regional consultations,

1. Endorses the guidelines on effective implementation of the right to participate in public affairs as a set of orientations for States, presented to the Human Rights Council by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights;[1]

* State not a member of the Human Rights Council.
